

KADİR YILMAZ

Kadir Yılmaz graduated from Istanbul University Labor Economics Department in 1987. In 1994, he completed his master's degree in Business Administration.

He started his business life in the accounting department of a company. In 1989, he started banking in the branch operations department of Dışbank. He worked in deposit account operations, credit operations and foreign exchange services in branches. He held various positions such as branch operations manager, regional operations manager, branch manager and manager at cash operations department in the head office,. After retirement he focused on language education and he graduated from the Department of Western Languages and Literature at Karabük University in 2017. Kadir Yılmaz has worked as an English and Turkish instructor at various language schools in Turkey and abroad . He is currently working as an instructor from IDE Training and Consultancy.