

UĞUR ÖZARSLAN

Ugur Özarslan who is the founding partner and main shareholder of IDE Education and Consulting Ltd. graduated from Gazi University, Faculty of Administrative Sciences, Department of Public Administration. After graduation he completed his master's degree in Business Finance at Istanbul University Institute of Social Sciences.

Later, he completed his doctorate program at Marmara University Banking and Insurance Institute with his thesis titled “Application of Economies of Scale to the Turkish Banking Sector”.

He began his banking career in 1988 at the Development Bank of Turkey. After working as an Assistant Specialist in the Finance Management Department, for 2 years, in 1989 he started to work as an Assistant Auditor at Board of Internal Auditors Department at Dışbank (Türk Dış Ticaret Bankası A.Ş.) After 6 years as an auditor, he worked as the Deputy Manager responsible for Credit Allocation at the General Directorate Credits Directorate of the same bank. Later, he worked as Branch Managers and Regional Commercial Director respectively at the same bank. In 2004, he founded IDE Training and Consultancy company and started training and consultancy activities for the financial sector.

Uğur Özarslan also teaches Financial Products Marketing and European Union Banking Systems at Yeditepe and Maltepe universities.

Courses :

Loan Allocation Techniques

Basic Financial Analysis

Advanced Financial Analysis

Basic Credits

Analysis for Construction Companies

Construction Sectoral Workshop

Non Performing Loans and Early Warning Signals

Credit Workshop

Sectoral Early Warning Signals

Sales Skills Development in Service Sector

Credit Simulation

Analyzing Financial Statements and Window Dressing Techniques

Sales Techniques Based on Financial Statements

Project Finance

Corporate Credit Analysis

Analyzing Consolidated Financial Statements